Biblical Calendar Part 2 - How did Yeshua fulfill them?

- Passover, First Fruits, Shavuot and the Sabbath
- Finding the Ancient Path | FTAP Teaching

Teaching Purpose

- Continue the calendar study from Part 1
- Examine the appointed times alongside Yeshua's work

Approach and Humility

- The speaker invites correction by Scripture
- Treat calendar disagreements with patience and respect

What Is Intercalation?

- Occasional addition of a month to retain the spring cycle
- No direct thirteenth-month instruction appears in the cited text

Second-Month Passover

- Numbers 9:9-14 - a specific delayed Passover provision
- 2 Chronicles 30 - an exceptional communal observance

Keeping the Year in Season

- Deuteronomy 16:1-8 - observe the month of Aviv
- Leviticus 23:9-14 - harvest offering and seasonal context

Did Yeshua Use Another Calendar?

- Luke 22 records the meal before His suffering
- The speaker offers a twilight-based reconciliation

Passover Twilight

- Exodus 12:3-14 - the fourteenth and the sacrifice
- Distinguish the text from proposed chronological models

What Is a Biblical Year?

- Genesis 7 and 8 supply dated Flood milestones
- The 360-day model requires interpretive care

The Passover Lamb

- Exodus 12 - select the lamb and keep it to day 14
- Messiah is identified as Passover in 1 Corinthians 5

Yeshua Enters Jerusalem

- John 12 and Matthew 21 - welcomed by a crowd
- The speaker relates this event to lamb selection

A Covenant of Deliverance

- Passover recalls liberation from bondage
- Messiah's sacrifice is applied to deliverance from sin

Unleavened Bread

- Seven days without leaven in the biblical observance
- 1 Corinthians 5 applies leaven morally to daily life

Cleansing the Temple

- Matthew 21 - Yeshua drives merchants from the temple
- The speaker links cleansing to the removal of sin

Ways to Remember Passover

- Family meal, Scripture reading and fellowship
- Traditional and Messiah-focused Seders are discussed

First Fruits and the Wave Sheaf

- Leviticus 23:9-14 - early grain offering
- The speaker links First Fruits to resurrection

The Red Sea and Baptism

- Exodus 14 - Israel crosses on dry ground
- 1 Corinthians 10 calls the crossing a baptism into Moses

Newness of Life

- Romans 6 - raised with Messiah into new life
- Colossians 2 - burial and raising through faith

Counting the Omer

- Leviticus 23:15-21 - seven weeks and fifty days
- The count moves toward Shavuot

Shavuot and Sinai

- Exodus 19 - fire, sound and the gathered people
- The speaker compares Sinai with Acts 2

The Spirit at Pentecost

- Acts 2 - wind, tongues as of fire and Peter's message
- About three thousand people are added

Two Loaves at Shavuot

- Leviticus 23 commands two leavened loaves
- The proposed prophetic symbolism is interpretation

The Seventh-Day Sabbath

- Genesis 2 - the seventh day blessed and sanctified
- Exodus 16 - Sabbath rest during the manna journey

Closing Fellowship

- Questions on calendar reckoning, festivals and unity
- Outreach, community tools and a future fall-feasts Teaching
