Ekklesia In The Home - Fundamentals For Building a Home Fellowship

Finding the Ancient Path | Teaching companion

- A biblical model for gathering, hospitality, discipleship, and neighborhood fellowship

The Invitation

- Move from study alone to discipleship in daily life
- Begin with the people and homes around you
- A single believer or household can take the first step

Follow Yeshua

- Mark 1:16-20 - Called to follow and become fishers of men
- The teaching asks listeners to move past fear and passivity
- Discipleship requires action and example

Peace and Hospitality

- Matthew 10:11-14 - Enter households with peace
- Welcome receptivity; do not force conversation
- Build sincere, patient relationships

Planting and Watering

- 1 Corinthians 3:5-9 - Different servants have different roles
- One plants; another waters
- God gives the increase

Seeking the Sheep

- Ezekiel 34:11-16 - YHWH seeks His sheep
- Matthew 10:5-7 - Yeshua sends His disciples
- Read these passages in context before applying them today

The Assembly in the Home

- Romans 16:5 - An assembly in a home
- 1 Corinthians 16:19 - Aquila and Priscilla
- Colossians 4:15; Philemon 1:2 - Other home assemblies

Gathering to Build Up

- 1 Corinthians 14:26 - Let everything be done for edification
- Invite Scripture, questions, prayer, and encouragement
- Participate with love and order

Begin With a Simple Plan

- Pray and identify a receptive person or household
- Invite them to a welcoming, Scripture-centered gathering
- Listen, serve, and follow up without pressure

Reflect and Respond

- What is preventing you from beginning?
- Whom could you encourage or invite this week?
- What is one practical action you will take?

Key Scriptures

- Mark 1:16-20
- Jeremiah 16:14-16
- Matthew 10:5-14
- 1 Corinthians 3:5-9
- Ezekiel 34:11-16

Additional Scriptures

- Romans 16:5
- 1 Corinthians 16:19
- Colossians 4:15
- Philemon 1:2
- 1 Corinthians 14:26-33
- Matthew 28:18-20

Closing Charge

- Begin in your home and your neighborhood
- Plant faithfully; leave growth to God
- Encourage one another to follow Yeshua