- Proverbs 18:2 - the importance of understanding

Intellectual Honesty

- Represent evidence accurately and acknowledge bias
- Remain logically consistent and open to correction

Avoid Straw-Man Arguments

- Address the actual claim rather than a distorted one
- Distinguish honest questions from unfair objections

The Unchanging God

- Malachi 3:6 - the LORD does not change
- James 1:17 - no shifting shadow with the Father

Yeshua Is the Same

- Hebrews 13:8 - yesterday, today and forever
- Psalm 102:25-27 - God outlasts creation

Profession and Obedience

- Matthew 7:21-23 - doing the Father’s will
- Yeshua warns those practicing lawlessness

The Law and the Prophets

- Matthew 5:17-19 - not abolish, but fulfill
- Read the full argument rather than one isolated phrase

What Was Finished?

- John 19:30 - the words spoken from the cross
- Distinguish the cross from future prophecy

Sin Separates

- Isaiah 59:2 - iniquity and separation
- 1 John 3:4 - sin and lawlessness

Law and Transgression

- Romans 4:15 - law and transgression
- Romans 5:13 - sin before Sinai requires context

Keep Reading the Passage

- Luke 16:16-17 - the law and the kingdom
- Read both verses before drawing conclusions

Go and Sin No More

- John 8:10-11 - mercy and a changed life
- Forgiveness is paired with a call to repent

Prophetic Foundations

- Amos 3:7 - God and the prophets
- The speaker tests claims through prophetic testimony

Instruction Before Sinai

- Genesis 7:2 - clean and unclean animals
- Genesis 26:5 - Abraham’s obedience

How Should We Test Paul?

- Acts 17:11 - examine the Scriptures daily
- Distinguish justification from righteous living

Paul and the Law

- Romans 3:31 - uphold the law by faith
- Romans 7:12 - holy, just and good

Peter’s Warning

- 2 Peter 3:15-18 - Paul can be hard to understand
- Guard against distortion and lawless error

Acts 20: The Gathering

- Acts 20:6-7 - a meeting after Unleavened Bread
- The calendar reading proposed is interpretive

Counting the Omer

- Leviticus 23:15-16 - seven complete Sabbaths
- 1 Corinthians 5:7-8 - Passover imagery

The Danger of Turning Away

- Seek God with the whole heart
- Examine doctrinal habits in light of Scripture

Sin, Transgression, Iniquity

- Exodus 34:6-7 - three related terms
- Leviticus 4:2 - unintentional sin

Key Takeaways

- Reason fairly, compare passages and pursue holiness
- Share carefully with patience and humility
