The Two Witnesses

- Who are they, and what is their purpose?
- Finding the Ancient Path | Prophecy & Kingdom

Where the Teaching Begins

- The opening includes an appeal for outreach support
- Then turns to the mystery of Revelation 11

Who Might They Be?

- Individuals, houses, peoples, ideologies or the church?
- The speaker favors two people representing Israel

Start with Revelation 11

- Two witnesses prophesy for 1,260 days
- Their names are not supplied by the passage

Two Olive Trees

- Revelation 11 draws on Zechariah 4
- Two anointed ones stand by the Lord of the earth

Two Lampstands

- Examine the imagery and its original context
- Do not assume a name that the text does not give

The Transfiguration

- Luke 9: Moses and Elijah appear with Yeshua
- The speaker proposes a clue, not direct identification

Moses Before the LORD

- Exodus records Moses’ unique prophetic ministry
- The speaker sees a possible parallel to Zechariah

Elijah Before the LORD

- 1 Kings 17-18 describes Elijah's prophetic witness
- A possible parallel with Revelation 11

Power to Withhold Rain

- 1 Kings 17:1 - Elijah announces drought
- Revelation 11 also describes withheld rain

Power Associated with Fire

- 2 Kings 1 - divine fire in Elijah’s ministry
- Revelation 11 describes fire against attackers

Water Turned to Blood

- Exodus 7 - the judgment on Egypt’s waters
- Revelation 11 echoes this sign

Plagues as Testimony

- Exodus 9 - signs reveal God’s power
- The witnesses’ plagues have a prophetic context

Why Sackcloth?

- Jonah 3 connects sackcloth and repentance
- The Teaching emphasizes warning and changed hearts

A Prophet’s Purpose

- Turn people back to God
- 1 Kings 18 and Jonah 3 frame this purpose

The Beast Opposes

- Revelation 11:7-10 - testimony, conflict and death
- Public celebration follows their deaths

Sodom and Egypt

- Revelation applies symbolic names to the city
- Compare Ezekiel 16 and its prophetic rebuke

Restored to Life

- Revelation 11:11 - life returns after 3.5 days
- Great fear falls on those who witness it

Ascension and Earthquake

- Revelation 11:12-13 - summoned to heaven
- The earthquake and response follow

Moses and Elijah: The Case

- The miraculous parallels shape the speaker’s view
- Revelation still does not identify them by name

A Different Possibility

- Could new prophets come in the same spirit?
- Compare Luke 1:16-17 and Matthew 17

Questions About Timing

- The 1,260 days are explicit
- Larger tribulation timelines require interpretation

The Closing Discussion

- The 144,000, resurrection and John 3:13
- Participants offer alternatives and questions

Key Study Takeaways

- Read the full text and compare supporting passages
- Let uncertainty produce humility, not division
