Israel - And End-Time Alignments PART 2

- A scriptural study of Genesis 12 and covenant identity
- Finding the Ancient Path

Teaching Purpose

- Follow the promises to Abraham from nation to Messiah
- Distinguish biblical covenant from modern geopolitics

Part 2: Questions From Genesis 12

- A great nation: when and how?
- Blessing and cursing: what does Scripture show?
- All families blessed: through whom?

The Land of the Name

- Deuteronomy 12: the place Yehovah chooses
- 2 Chronicles 6: Jerusalem chosen for His name

Solomon and the Temple

- 1 Kings 9: His name, eyes, and heart
- The speaker calls believers to pray for Israel

Daniel Prayed Toward Jerusalem

- Daniel 6:10: Daniel's continuing practice
- 1 Kings 8: Solomon's prayer toward the chosen place

A Nation Formed in Egypt

- Genesis 46: a great nation in Egypt
- Exodus 12: deliverance of a large mixed company

A Kingdom of Priests

- Exodus 19: covenant calling at Sinai
- Obedience, priesthood, and a holy nation

Israel Under Solomon

- 1 Kings 10: international renown and wisdom
- Historical glory points to an ultimate hope

Bless Those Who Bless You

- Genesis 12:2-3: blessing and cursing
- Abimelech and Rahab are discussed as examples

Opposition and Judgment

- Amalek and Haman are cited as examples
- Distinguish narrative facts from inferred causation

All Families of the Earth

- Genesis 18: righteousness and justice in the household
- The speaker links faithful witness to the nations

Instruction Before the Nations

- Deuteronomy 4: wisdom seen by the peoples
- The nations observe the character of God’s ways

A Light to the Nations

- Isaiah 49:6: salvation to the ends of the earth
- Matthew 5:14-16: good works glorify the Father

The Blessing in Messiah

- Acts 3:25-26: turning from iniquity
- The promised blessing reaches its center in Yeshua

Who Are Abraham's Children?

- Galatians 3:6-9: those of faith
- The nations are blessed through faith

The Promised Seed

- Galatians 3:16-18: the Seed is Messiah
- The earlier promise is not annulled by later Torah

Promise, Faith, and Obedience

- Covenant inheritance is grounded in promise
- Faithful obedience remains a meaningful response

Who Belongs to Messiah?

- Galatians 3:26-29: heirs according to promise
- Jew and Gentile are welcomed by faith

Before Messiah’s Return

- The speaker describes preservation and gathering
- Tribulation and refinement are part of his framework

At and After Messiah’s Return

- Zechariah 12-14: mourning and deliverance
- Amos 9: restoration; Revelation 21: final hope

The Question of 1948

- Ezekiel 37: restoration from dry bones
- A proposed connection to 1948 remains interpretive

Covenant and Modern Politics

- Praying for Israel is not the same as approving policy
- Government disagreement is not automatically prejudice

Discussion and Study

- Where does the text end and interpretation begin?
- How do promise, righteousness, and faith relate?
- How should believers pray and act?

Finding the Ancient Path

- Israel - And End-Time Alignments PART 2
- https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rK_oyfF6fbc